

Cherries

1738 June 23 (Friday). Hot Day. The Children went a Cherrying p.m. to Captain Fays.

1748 June 17 (Friday). Cherrys and Currans [sic] begin to be prey'd upon.

1745 June 27 (Thursday). People report here for the Fruits of my Garden. Cherry and Currants.

1751 June 21 (Friday). Sarah Sick -- no doubt by eating Currans and Cherrys.

1758 January 15 (Sunday). At Eve my wife in much pain -- drinks an infusion of wild Cherry Tree Bark.

1766 July 10 (Thursday). At Mr. Barretts great plenty of Cherrys.

1773 June 29 (Tuesday). Visit Mr. Barrett -- Generous in Cherrys to bring home, with me.