

Dr. John Hill of Boston

1768 July 11 (Monday). Received a Letter from Dr. Hill of Boston concerning a stone which some Brookfield man had carried him to try it.

1768 July 12 (Tuesday). I walked up the Street to Mr. Zebulon Rice's with a Letter which I received from Dr. John Hill of Boston concerning a sort of fossile which tis Supposed by some is the Cobelt, found in Brookfield.

1769 December 16 (Saturday). Dr. John Hill and Mr. Joshua Smith dined here, and prov'd a very great Interruption to me in my Preparations which I could not forward in the former part of the Week.

1768 May 23 (Monday). Mr. Breck and I rode to Boston.... Arrived at Cousen Procters nigh sun sett. Put up the Horse at Mr. May's. Lodged at Cousen Loyds, with Coll. Hinckley of Brunswick. N.B. Dr. John Hill lives at Loyds.