

Dr. Hugh Kennedy (c. 1684-1760) of Boston

“On Wednesday Night, last Week, died here, in the 76th Year of his Age, Dr. Hugh Kennedy, a Physician of note, and much esteem’d in this Town.”

Boston Post-Boy, Oct. 20, 1760, p. [1].

1736 March 9 (Tuesday). I rode to Charleston -- Mr. Breck of Springfield with me. Dined with my Honoured Mother at Boston. Spent the Afternoon and Eve among my Relatives. N.B. Capt. Malachi Foot and his Wife from New York and other Company, at Brother Elias’s. N.B. Capt. Foots going home with Dr. Kennadys Daughters and tarrying late, to his wife’s, his Mothers, and the Companys Disquietment.

1736 August 31 (Tuesday). I rode to Boston.... Tea p.m. with Sister Dorcas, Mrs. Kennady and Mrs. Molly Bennett. Eve at Mr. Pierponts.