

Francis Barns (1752-1813)

Born: Nov. 20, 1752

son of Richard and Elizabeth (Bruce) Barns

Died: Aug. 30, 1813, a. 60 (Westminster VR 212)

Married: Dec. 20, 1774, Hannah Savage of Northborough (Northborough VR 76)

int. Aug. 20, 1774 (WVR 119)

Born:

daughter of

Died:

Children:

Epharam, Oct. 13, 1775 (WVR 13)

d. Sept. 1777

Parkman Diary, Sept. 9, 1777 (Tuesday). P.M. attended the Burial of Mr. Francis Barns's little son Ephraim, which was nigh two years old -- dyed of the Throat Distemper.

Betsy, July 3, 1777, at Westborough (Westminster VR 11)

Ephraim, Apr. 4, 1779 at Westborough (Westminster VR 11)

Lydia, Jan. 11, 1781 at Westborough (Westminster VR 11)

Sukey, July 19, 1783 at Westborough (Westminster VR 11)

Lorey, June 1, 1787, "At No Town" (Westminster VR 11)

Sewall, Oct. 11, 1790, at Fitchburg (Westminster VR 11)

Sullivan, Mar. 27, 1793 (Westminster VR 11)

Samuel, July 29, 1796 (Westminster VR 11)

1777 September 9 (Tuesday). P.M. attended the Burial of Mr. Francis Barns's little son Ephraim, which was nigh two years old -- dyed of the Throat Distemper.

1779 October 31 (Sunday). I received today by Mr. Francis Barns, a proclamation for a Day of Humiliation and Supplication, which I read.

1780 October 18 (Wednesday). I returned to Westborough. On my way, dined at Col. Weeks' in Marlborough. Proceeded to Mr. Elizur Holyoke's, a joiner at Col. Williams -- Col. Brigham's, and at Mr. Francis Barns's.