

James Webber (d. 1779)

1779 July 5 (Monday). On my way home I went into the Workhouse to see a Stranger who was taken sick on the Road from Fishkill and going to his Family at Casco Bay.

1779 July 7 (Wednesday). Visit the poor Sick Stranger at the Workhouse -- and prayed with him. His name is James Webber of Purpoodock and has a Wife and two Children: he is ill of bilious Fever and Camp-Distemper.

1779 July 12 (Monday). Having understood that Mr. James Webber was still sick at the Workhouse, I went there p.m. to see him and prayed with him.

1779 July 14 (Wednesday). I visited and prayed with the sick Stranger, Mr. James Webber. He is grown worse. May God prepare him and us for His Sovereign Will!

1779 July 15 (Thursday). P.M. attended Mr. Webber's Funeral, and prayed.
